

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Code of Conduct was established to address unsportsmanlike or inappropriate behavior displayed by a coach, volunteer, or dancer during a Yes, You Can Dance (YYCD) class, party, or competition event.

YYCD is committed to the highest ideals of dance. All YYCD Dancers and Partners agree to the following code:

SPORTSMANSHIP

- Practice good sportsmanship
- Act in ways that bring respect to me, my coaches, and my fellow dancers
- Refrain from using bad language
- Refrain from swearing or insulting other persons
- Refrain from fighting with other dancers, coaches, volunteers or staff

TRAINING AND COMPETITION

- Train regularly
- Learn and follow the rules of the dances.
- Listen to my coaches and the officials and ask questions when I do not understand
- Always try my best during training, performances and competitions

RESPONSIBILITY FOR MY ACTIONS

- Refrain from making inappropriate or unwanted physical, verbal, or sexual advances to others
- Refrain from smoking in non-smoking areas
- Refrain from drinking alcohol or using illegal drugs at Yes, You Can Dance events
- Refrain from taking drugs for the purpose of improving my performance
- Obey all laws and Yes, You Can Dance rules

As a dancer, I understand that if I do not obey this Code of Conduct, I will be subject to a range of consequences by my Program, which may include not being allowed to participate.
